Our History

Founded in 1994, Tamarix Capital has a history of successfully investing across a broad array of industries with an emphasis on working with private, family-owned or closely held companies to expand their businesses.

Our name, “tamarix”, refers to a family of trees native to the Mediterranean and central Asia which are renowned for their ability to adapt to and thrive in different environments. Tamarix prides itself on a similar degree of flexibility and resiliency in our approach to lower-middle-market investing. We are nimble and flexible in our investment structuring so as to meet the needs of each situation. We are resilient investors and partners, able to help companies through a variety of business cycles and stages of growth.

We believe that our reputation is of the utmost importance and, in turn, our core tenets of integrity, respect, excellence and confidentiality continually guide our business practices.
